INSUREtrust Welcomes Professional Lines Account Executive Rachel Boyd

Norcross, GA (February 4, 2019) – Atlanta-based INSUREtrust is pleased to announce the addition of Rachel Boyd as a Professional Lines Account Executive on the brokering team of Executive Vice President Christiaan Durdaller.

Rachel brings with her seven years of wholesale experience in management liability, allied healthcare, medical malpractice, cyber and miscellaneous professional liability. She began her career at Trilogy Risk Specialists handling their small professional lines accounts and has spent the last two years as an account manager at Brown and Riding, working on Allied Healthcare and D&O.

“Rachel is a welcome addition to our team. She brings a wealth of experience in the insurance industry with expertise in allied healthcare, medical malpractice as well as management liability,” Durdaller said. “Our clients are assured the very best coverage at the very best rates.”

Her in-depth knowledge of the insurance marketplace and industry trends will be a great benefit to the INSUREtrust production team.

About INSUREtrust

INSUREtrust, located in the Atlanta metro area, is a national insurance wholesaler that seeks to simplify insurance. In April 1997, INSUREtrust was the first company in the world to successfully develop, underwrite, and market an insurance policy covering the new commercial risks generated with using the Internet – such as privacy and security breaches. For the past 21 years, INSUREtrust has continued to be a leading cyber liability insurance company. In 2017, INSUREtrust won “Cyber Risk Broking Team of the Year” at Advisen’s 4th annual Cyber Risk Awards.
